My employer signed me up to take a course. How do I get started?

Employee · https://training.fairhousinginstitute.com/docs/tutorial-employee/

Congratulations on having an employer who wants to invest in your education! Follow the instructions below to get started on your learning journey:

1. Locate your registration email (be sure to check your spam folder, too).
2. Use the login information provided in the email to access your account.
3. From the top menu select Account > My Courses.
4. Click the course title to access the course.
5. Click the course title to start.