The Fair Housing and Senior Living course highlights compliance issues unique to age-restricted and senior communities, including advertising, resident interactions, and reasonable accommodations. It’s recommended for senior housing managers, leasing agents, property owners, and administrators to ensure fair and compliant housing practices. Keep in mind that this course is for targeted training to build on fair housing fundamentals. We recommend that, if you haven't already, you also complete the Basics of Fair Housing course or Fair Housing in a Flash.
